A Contemplation on the Life and Times of a Set Apart Place

Advent Blessing & Opportunity

Camp Koinonia has been on the receiving end of many blessings in 2015. A small bank in Cle Elum that has a large circle of friends started the year off by donating several doors that were in excellent condition. Some have already been put to use replacing aging doors in the Retreat Center. That fine, old building also had new flooring donated as well as receiving indoor sports equipment.

The blessings continued into the fall when a kind and generous couple donated funds to stain all of our log sided buildings. The donation included labor to complete the project. Although the project will not be finished until this coming spring the cabins that have been stained look wonderful.

Within the past few weeks another couple stepped forward and donated funds to renovate Heritage Cabin # 4. When completed this coming spring Cabin 4 will have new bunk beds, flooring, lights, doors and blinds. The meeting room will have new flooring, the kitchen will be simplified and have a fresh new look. There will also be new fixtures in the bathrooms. As you might imagine everyone here at camp is excited about this latest project. In fact, as this edition of the Koinonia News goes to press we have already begun work on the project.

As part of the Cabin 4 renovations there will be mattress's purchased for the comfort of our campers. We are pleased to announce that thanks to the generosity of yet another couple Camp Koinonia is going to replace a total of 91 old mattress's, not just those in Cabin 4. What a wonderful Advent blessing that is!

The couple who have donated the funds to replace all of our old mattress's have issued a challenge to Brethren, User Groups, and other Friends of Camp. They would like to see people purchase a new mattress for $100. The goal is to raise $10,000 to offset the cost of the new mat-tress's.

Funds from this fund raiser will be used to renovate one of the three remaining Heritage Cabins.
